LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

I take great pleasure in recording my impressions about Mr. ATIQULLAH (1BO15CV100). In my capacity, I've known him both personally and as a teacher for quite some time. My interaction with him is very concrete and I have discussed with him in the area of Hydrology and Irrigation engineering. I have found him to be a very sincere student endowed with intellectual ability and with a very good purchase of fundamentals of engineering and related subjects.

During my association with him, he impressed me well with his intellectual abilities and a proactive, focused nature. He has an innate ability to grasp and master basic concepts of any subject pretty fast. His dedication to the job at hand deserves a special mention. He is an inquisitive and patient listener and has been an active participant in the classroom discussions, wherein he was very lucid and could communicate issues without any ambiguity. His methodical and meticulous approach to any problem has cast an indelible impression on me.

Mr. ATIQULLAH has a limpid expression of ideas in English through oral and written means and speaks convincingly well. His choice of using diurnal examples during his seminars is outstanding. Having seen him perform to my satisfaction during project seminars and topic seminars, I have no reservations in stating that he has great inclination for research. He has the right blend of aptitude, merit and tenacity. I would rank him as one my good student taking into account all of my personal observations. He also has the making of a leader, which he has demonstrated with his efficient organizing of seminars in our department.

I deem him strong pine to pursue higher studies in your decorous university appropriate for his bright future. With his sound academic background, affable personality, excellent communication skills and a strong will to succeed, I am sure he would prove to be an asset to your institution. Hence, I unconditionally recommend Mr. ATIQULLAH to the graduate program at your university. I place myself fully accessible to you, to be contacted regarding enquiries about him.

This recommendation is eligible for use only legally for pursuing the student's career.
